In Loving Memory of Justin Jon Burns

December 30, 1981 – October 14, 2026

It is with profound sadness that the family of Justin Jon Burns announces his passing on October 14, 2026, at the age of 44.

Originally from Blackville, New Brunswick, Justin made his home in Cains River and worked in Saint John as a welding inspector. His unexpected passing has left a tremendous sadness in the hearts of his family, friends, and all those fortunate enough to have known him.

Justin was a man of many talents, a sharp wit, and a wonderful sense of humor. He had a lifelong passion for skateboarding and snowboarding, interests that began in childhood and remained a part of his life throughout the years. They reflected his adventurous spirit and his determination to keep doing the things he loved.

Gifted with his hands and never one to shy away from a challenge, Justin took great pride in building, creating, and tackling projects that others might have considered impossible. Where others saw a challenge, Justin saw an opportunity to figure it out. He had a remarkable ability to take on difficult projects and see them through to completion, often exceeding expectations.

Perhaps one of Justin's most memorable qualities was his quick wit and unmistakable sense of humor. With his playful teasing, slapstick antics, and ability to find humor in almost any situation, he had a special talent for making people laugh. He could turn an ordinary moment into a funny memory, often when it was least expected. His humor was uniquely his own, and the laughter he brought into the lives of others will be dearly missed.

Justin also understood that the value of friendship was never measured by the number of people in one's life, but by the quality of those relationships. He treasured his friendships with Jeff Mattheson and Andrew Smith, once proudly declaring, "No one needs a lot of friends. I have two of the best, and

I don't need any more." It was a simple statement that spoke volumes about the loyalty, appreciation, and genuine affection he held for those closest to him.

Justin leaves behind his loving mother, Joy Burns; his son, William; his sister, Chantal; his niece, Isabella; his aunts, JoAnne Burns and Jeanne Dunnet; and many cousins and extended family members who will forever hold his memory close to their hearts.

He was predeceased by his beloved younger sister, Maggie Jean, in 2018; his grandmother, Doreen, in 2019; who he had a very special bond with, and his grandfather, Go, in 2004.

The loss of Justin is one that words cannot adequately express. Forty-four years was simply not enough time, and his family is deeply saddened by the memories that will never be made and the moments they will no longer share. Yet, in the midst of their grief, they will hold on to the memories that remain: his laughter, his humor, his determination, his pride in the things he created, and the countless little moments that made him unmistakably Justin.

Though his time here was far too short, the memories he leaves behind will remain in the hearts of those who loved him. He will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and never forgotten.
