It is with great sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Jeffery Adam Morrison of Miramichi, NB, who passed away on February 19, 2024, at the age of 43, following a vehicle accident. Born in Newcastle on October 31, 1980, he was the son of Roberta (Frost) Morrison and the late Gerald Morrison.

Jeff was a Red Seal Pipefitter by trade and was a member of St. Samuel's Roman Catholic Church, Cursillo Movement and also Local 325 Pipefitters Union. He loved fishing, canoeing and was an avid reader and book collector. Jeff was also the author of the book "Miramichi Murders, Mysteries and Mayhem".

Besides his mother, Roberta, he is survived by his son Liam, Grande Prairie, AB, and one brother Jason (Sheri) Kentville, NS, and nephew Brody; also several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Jeff was predeceased by his father Gerald (Gerry) on March 19, 2023.

Jeff will be resting at Jardine Funeral Home, 597 Old King George Highway, Miramichi, NB, with visitation on Friday, February 23 from 5 – 9 pm Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday at 11 am at St. Samuel's Roman Catholic Church, Douglastown with Fr. Peter Aloo officiating.

Music will be performed by St. Samuel's Choir, with a special taped song "I Have A Home In Heaven" played, that was written by his parents and sang by his father. Eulogy will be done by Doris Morrison and readings by Derrick Driscoll, Debbie Taylor and Prayers of the Faithful by Amy Rees.

Active pallbearers will be Kris Legresley, Ryan Walsh, Stu Hatcher, Todd Sickles, Adam Levesque and Kevin Tucker.

In Jeff's memory donations may be made to a memorial of one's choice. Messages of condolence for the family can be sent through the funeral home website at www.miramichifunerals.ca.
