Obituary for John Robert Robichaud

It is with great sadness that we announce the tragic passing of John Robert Robichaud, devoted husband of Stephanie Prince, as a result of a motorcycle accident on September 10, 2025.

John (Papa John to his grandkids) was predeceased by his parents, Reg Robichaud and Barb (Wilcox) Robichaud, and his brother, Reginald Joseph (Joe) Robichaud.

He leaves behind his wife Stephanie Prince, son Erik Robichaud, step-children Brittanie, Courtney (Steven), Lyndsay (Ryan) and Josh Hallett, 16 grandchildren Reginald Robichaud, Emma (Jayden), Brayden, Chase, Molly, Mason, Myles, Michaela, Karlie, Katie, Kennedy, Rylyn, Sadie, Silas, Joshua and Ellie and one great grandchild Denali. He also leaves behind his older sister, Ramona Robichaud, and younger brother Ronald Robichaud. John also leaves behind his special friend “Woody,” his black lab. Papa John had a special bond with Kennedi, who considered him her “best friend”.

Born in Brantford, Ontario, he moved with the military family until they settled in Douglas, NB. John spent 35 years as a red seal journeyman sprinkler fitter. Most recently, he worked for Ultimate Windows and Doors and admired his boss and colleagues.

John was a voracious reader- insisting on reading any series from book 1 till the end. He found it hard to part with his books. He crewed on the tall ship, the Picton Castle, and captained his own boat, Miss Heidi, for 6 years, much to the grandkids' delight. He also qualified as a master diver – a considerate achievement and most recently dove in Cozumel, Mexico. Johns surprising wood carving skills yielded prize-winning pieces, whimsical pieces that he's sold and gifted. He considered Steph his “Paint department” and they were a team.

A Celebration of life will be held from 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm on Saturday, September 13, 2025, at the Kingsley Church Hall in his loving memory.
